The Chicago Inter-Ocean comments on stage kisses: "Janauscheck's kisses are but rare, and they are very matron-ly. They come with words that are growled forth from a deeply embedded diaphragm, and are mere touches— not like what Soldene's used to be in the days of old, when she gave her stage lovers the full benefit of the mammoth cave that yawns across her face. There is more kiss to the square foot of Soldene's mouth than that of any other woman on the stage. Alice Oates did some pretty kissing. She could kiss the high tragedy or low comedy, and between the two extremes ring in every known variety, from Medjeska's stately iciness to Pauline Markham's smack. On one occasion an actor feeing full of inspiration or beer, seized her on the stage, gave her a hug that must have made her ribs meet, and bestowed a paroxysmal kiss upon her. Next night her husband apeared in the wings with a big revolver ready to blow the top of the actor's head off should he try it again, saying he could furnish all the parcxysm wanted in that family himself."

Rev. E. F. L. GAUSS, Gaissa, Illa, writes—
"For over ten years I had been a great sufferer from pains in the small of the back and region of the kidneys, which was most excruciating and at times almost insufferable. Doctoring brought no relief, and I was finally advised to go abroad and seek the climate of my youth. In Germany and Switzerland, eminent physicians, after close examinations, declared my sufferings to arise from disease of the kidneys, of long standing, and could do me no good. I was, however, benefited by the climate and consequently returned. No sooner had I been hack and resumed my pastoral work, when the old trouble grew again so intense as to make life a burden. A few months ago I came in possession of one of Day's Kidney Pade, put it on, and the effects were truly wonderful. The pains at once grew less and are now, after wearing the second Pad, entirely gone, and there can be no doubt that I am entirely cured, as I write this some weeks after its use, and am strong and look tagsin the very picture of health. I write this porrectly voluntarily, and it is dictated only by truth and gratimde. Indeed, I consider the Day Kidney Pad Co. God's agents and great benefactors of mankind. May all the suffering be helped as I have been is my carnest wish." CHAS, DAVIS, 124 Myrtle Street, B
